Vice Admiral Lynde D. McCormick
President, Naval War College
Newport, Rhode Island

Dear Admiral McCormick:

I am in receipt of a letter dated December 9 from the Secretary of the Navy extending to me your kind invitation to address the staff and students of the Naval War College on the subject, "Major United States Intelligence Problems".

As I have informed the Secretary, I am delighted to accept this invitation to speak once again at the Naval War College. In line with the Secretary's suggestion I am writing you to arrange the necessary details and scheduling of my address on February 18, 1955 at 11:00 a.m.

I will plan to leave Washington via plane sufficiently early in the morning on the 18th of February to arrive at the Quonset Point Naval Air Station by 10:00 a.m. I hope that as in the past you will be able to furnish water transportation for me from the Air Station to the War College. If you desire I will arrange my schedule in order to remain for a while after my talk for informal discussions with you or members of your staff.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
